What is my industry certification journey?

2

Why is industry certification important?

A great deal of Capgemini 340,000+ employees worldwide are directly supporting our clients, making Industry a vital part of our business.

Our clients look for people who truly understand their world. By becoming fluent in the language and trends of your industry, you set yourself apart as someone who 'gets it' - making you the go-to person in your field.
